Delta® Adds Nonstop Flights between Birmingham and Los Angeles to Accommodate Rose Bowl Fans

Alabama Fans Can Book Now for Travel to the Semifinal Game Against Michigan

BIRMINGHAM, AL (December 6, 2023) – Delta Air Lines is making it easier for Alabama fans to get to California for the Rose Bowl, which will be played on New Year's Day in Pasadena. The SEC Champion Crimson Tide will take on the Michigan Wolverines in a matchup that is sure to draw a huge crowd both at the stadium and on national television.

For local fans who want to witness the game in person, Delta has added nonstop flights to and from Los Angeles (LAX). The flights are available for booking now.

The departing flight leaves Birmingham-Shuttlesworth International Airport (BHM) on December 30th at 1:55pm and arrives at LAX at 4:30pm. The nonstop from LAX to BHM will leave Los Angeles on January 2nd at 12:45pm, arriving at BHM at 6:45pm.
