Tis the Season for Live Holiday Music Performances
at Birmingham-Shuttlesworth International Airport

Sights and Sounds of the Season Starts Today, December 12th

BIRMINGHAM, AL – (December 12, 2022) –BHM is bringing live music and performances to travelers at the airport for the busy holiday season. Sights and Sounds of the Season will help get travelers into the holiday spirt.

Beginning today through the end of December, the live performances will feature a wide variety of entertainment from individual musicians, music groups, even a dance company. Jazz standards, classical, RNB, oldies, pop, and many other genres are a part of the musical lineup at BHM. Travelers will also hear many holiday favorites.

The talented line-up will perform in the public area of the terminal. Musical guests include Marion McKay & her Mood Swings, Max Groove Trio, Hewitt-Trussville High School Chamber Choir, Etowah Youth Orchestra, Clinton Barbers music, and many soloists whose passion for their craft will be evident.

The Sights and Sounds of the Season performances will take place most days between 10am-12pm and 2pm-4pm.

Learn more about the performers featured in the Sights and Sounds of the Season by visiting the airport website: https://www.flybirmingham.com/sites-and-sounds-of-the-season-2/

Members of the Media who would like to get pictures or video of the performances are asked to contact us before coming out.
